

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING

OUTSOURCING

In the event the Company engages a third party to perform work presently being performed by bargaining unit members and where employees will no longer be offered work by the Company as a result thereof, affected employees may exercise any rights they may have under the terms of the Collective Agreement if they elect not to be an employee of the third party or are not offered continued employment with the third party.